Personal Statement:

The P.E.O. Sisterhood was founded in 1869. We are a philanthropic and educational organization committed to bringing women increased opportunities for higher education. Our purpose is solely charitable. Chapter AE feels a strong desire to provide monetary assistance to the women of the Lower Eastern Shore. As one of the local P.E.O. chapters, we sponsor this particular scholarship. Other scholarships, grants, and loans are awarded on the state and international levels of P.E.O. by application through local chapters. You can find more information about P.E.O. at www.peointernational.org.

In addition to the information requested above, you must include a one (1) page, double-spaced personal statement describing your qualifications for this scholarship and how they relate to the goals of P.E.O. – those of philanthropy and the advancement of higher education for women. We would like to know what sets you apart from other scholarship applicants.
